РАЗДЕЛ 2. ТЕКУЩИЙ КОНТРОЛЬ ПО ДИСЦИПЛИНЕ «Иностранный язык»

Текущий контроль знаний используется для оперативного и регулярного управления учебной деятельностью (в том числе самостоятельной работой) обучающихся.

В условиях балльно-рейтинговой системы контроля результаты текущего оценивания обучающегося используются как показатель его текущего рейтинга. Текущий контроль успеваемости осуществляется в течение семестра, в ходе повседневной учебной работы по индивидуальной инициативе преподавателя. Данный вид контроля стимулирует у обучающегося стремление к систематической самостоятельной работе по изучению дисциплины.

ТИПОВЫЕ ТЕСТОВЫЕ ЗАДАНИЯ ДЛЯ ТЕКУЩЕГО КОНТРОЛЯ

РАЗДЕЛ 1.

1. Read the text. Mark the statements true or false.

The mass media play an important part in our lives. Newspapers, radio and especially TV inform us of what is going on in this world and give us wonderful possibilities for education and entertainment. They also influence the way we see the world and shape our views. Of course, not all newspapers and TV programmes report the events objectively, but serious journalists and TV reporters try to be fair and provide us with reliable information. It is true that the world today is full of dramatic events and most news seems to be bad news. But people aren't interested in ordinary events. That is why there are so many programmes and articles about natural disasters, plane crashes, wars, murders and robberies. Good news doesn't usually make headlines. Bad news does. Some people say that journalists are given too much freedom. They often intrude on people's private lives. They follow celebrities and print sensational stories about them which are untrue or half-true. They take photos of them in their most intimate moments. The question is — should this be allowed? The main source of news for millions of people is television. People like TV news because they can see everything with their own eyes. And that's an important advantage. Seeing, as we know, is believing. Besides, it's much more difficult for politicians to lie in front of the cameras than on the pages of newspapers. Still, many people prefer the radio. It's good to listen to in the car, or in the open air, or when you do something about the house. Newspapers don't react to events as quickly as TV, but they usually provide us with extra detail, comment and background information. The Internet has recently become another important source of information. Its main advantage is that news appears on the screen as soon as things happen in real life and you don't have to wait for news time on TV.

True or false?

1. It is impossible to live in the world without mass media.
2. Nowadays TV Mass media influence the way we see the world.
3. Dramatic events are often discussed on TV and in newspapers.
4. Good news also appear in mass media.
5. Journalists often speak about the facts, which people shouldn't know.
6. Television is not the main source of information.
7. The Internet is the quickest way to learn the information.

ПАЗДЕЛ 2

1. Read the text and match the words with their meaning as used in the article

The nuclear family is the traditional family structure in the West. This term, originating in the 1950s, describes families consisting of a father, a mother, and their offspring. Under this conventional structure, the family is seen as the basic unit in society; the father functions as the breadwinner and the mother as the homemaker. Nowadays, alternative family types are becoming more common, such as single-parent families, families headed by same-sex parents, and extended families where families live with their kin, which may include several generations. Extended families are less common in North America, where it is not uncommon to place grandparents in retirement homes.

A Social Trends survey in 2009 reported radical changes in child rearing and marriage practices in the United Kingdom. Figures showed that while 30 percent of women under thirty had given birth by the age of 25, only 24 percent had married. This marked the first time childbirth had become the first major milestone in adult life, ahead of marriage. In 1971 in the U.K, 3/4 of women were married by the age of 25 and half were mothers.

Judging by the high rates of divorce and the increasing number of children born out of wedlock, it would appear that the family as an institution is in decline. American sociologist Stephanie Coontz believes so too, but for different reasons. Coontz points out that marriages are no longer arranged for political or economic reasons, and children are no longer required to contribute to the family income. Marriages nowadays are founded on love. She believes this shift towards love, emotional fulfillment, and free choice has actually weakened the family by making it optional and fragile.

1. offspring	a. a very important stage in the development of sth
2. conventional	b. traditional
3. breadwinner	c. bring up and care for a child until it is fully grown
4. homemaker	d. the income-earner of a family
5. kin	e. breakable; delicate; weak
6. rear (verb)	f. failing; dying
7. milestone	g. the state of being married
8. wedlock	h. children
9. institution	i. a person who takes care of the house and family
10. in decline	j. your family or your relatives
11. fragile	k. a custom or system that has existed for a long time

2. Read the story and mark these statements true, false or not stated (if there isn't enough information in the text).

In the 1960s a collection of artists made that question even more difficult to answer. They created Pop Art, a style of art that represented everybody's everyday experiences. Pop artists were fascinated by realistic images from everyday life that everybody saw. One element of life they noticed was that almost all people are consumers who buy and use millions of different things every day. As a result, many Pop artists used images of products from the supermarket or advertisements in their works.

The most famous Pop artist was the American Andy Warhol. Warhol painted products like Campbell's Soup, Coca Cola bottles and bananas. He also painted other everyday images. For example, his bright portraits of celebrities like Marilyn Monroe, the famous actress, became very fashionable. The British Pop artist Eduardo Paolozzi collected pictures and advertisements from magazines to use in his works. Another well-liked Pop artist was Roy Lichtenstein. Instead of using products or advertisements, most of his works were similar to images in the comic books that children read every day.

Many people in the art world do not accept Pop Art as a real art form. They can't see why a dull painting of an ordinary can of soup should be part of an art exhibition. However, many original Pop Art works have sold for millions of dollars. Many works have also appeared on music album covers. All in all, the most important result of Pop Art is that it has created a new artistic way of looking at the everyday world.

A flight to India had a stopover at Heathrow Airport. The stopover was just two hours, so the passengers only had time for a snack and a bit of shopping before they were ready to board their next plane to Bombay. But there was a huge queue to the security check and the passengers were starting to get very nervous. They didn't want to miss their flight. One of the passengers in the queue was a very tall Indian with a big bag. The bag was heavy for normal hand baggage and the man had put it on a trolley. When it was his turn to go through the metal detector, he stepped forward with his bag. Of course, the next thing everybody heard was a loud alarm (сирена). The security officers went speechless with surprise. However, a moment later, they turned to the Indian man and very politely asked him to leave his hand baggage with them before going through the metal detector. The Indian smiled, took his bag off the trolley and gave it to a security officer. Then he went back to his trolley, pushed it in front of him and tried to go through the metal detector once again. ### THE VOCABULARY TEST

Blind date next door

Romance magazine talked to Dan who tells us about how he found the love of his life.

1      c

Dan Actually, we met at three very different times in our lives. We were both born in Bath and we actually grew up in the same street. Jess's parents ran an art gallery across the road from our house. We knew each other as children but not well. Six years is a big age difference when you're a kid.

Dan After school I started university in Oxford. My best friend there was Paul. We're still very close: he's like a brother to me. One day I went round to see him for coffee. He introduced me to his cousin who was visiting. She was so attractive she took my breath away.

Dan She was very chatty and funny. As the evening progressed, I liked her more and more. To be honest, I was quite disappointed when I found out she was just 16 – I thought she was too young for me. I was just starting my Master's degree in English, so I was 22 then.

Dan No, I didn't – not then. One summer Paul and I visited my old home town. We were staying with my parents. Over dinner, Paul mentioned something about the art gallery his uncle owned across the road. That's when I realized who Jess was.

Dan No, we didn't. We met years later. I went on a chatroom website, and I started exchanging messages with a very nice, 21-year-old girl. We sent each other links to songs and videos on the net that we both liked, we talked about the best places in Bath to go out to eat, that sort of thing. It took me some time to get the courage to ask her out on a date.

Dan We agreed to meet outside the Assembly Rooms, and go from there to an Indian restaurant close by. But as I was leaving home, I ran into Jess in the street. We talked a bit, then she said she was in a hurry because she had a blind date with someone. Of course, that someone was me.

Dan Yes and no. It was the beginning of my happiest relationship. But it wasn't really a blind date – I have known her all my life!

1. Read the interview quickly and choose the correct letter.
